

The path to unity

by the Master —, through Benjamin Creme, 11 June 2011

When the history of this unique time is written, men will realize, perhaps for the first time, how important, how central, have been the recent events in the Middle East. In an astonishing six months, following the example of the people of Tunisia and Egypt, the inhabitants of many Middle Eastern countries, subdued, and locked into centuries-old tribal dictatorial regimes, have risen and demanded their right to freedom and democracy, to social justice and work. What media call 'the Arab Spring' is costing many lives and much suffering for these courageous people who die willingly for freedom for their brothers and children. They are called, and are indeed, martyrs.

From now on, this same phenomenon will manifest throughout the world. Already, many peoples are organizing themselves to do likewise. A blueprint for change has caught the imagination of many millions and soon will command the attention of the world. Men have understood that, when organized and brave, they are invincible. Nothing can halt this movement for change. It embodies the concepts of the future and of the Plan. Maitreya has given it voice, which is now the voice of the peoples of the world.

Old order

The old order seeks in every way to halt the progress of this movement for change, but it cannot stand for ever against the principles of life: ever changing, ever remaking its form to better express the nature of that life. Thus is it today, and thus the old will wither and the new shoots flourish, as men seek to express and manifest better the principles of the New Time: sharing, justice, right relationship, love and unity.

Progress

Man, verily, is on his way. Naught can halt his further progress if he thinks in terms of Unity. All men seek Unity but are confused by different paths. Hold ever before you the principles of Unity and Love, and the way discloses itself.

Thus spoke Maitreya in Cairo, in Tahrir Square. The best of those who heard Him will lead their brothers and sisters and show them the way, the simple way to Brotherhood and Peace, Justice and manifested Love.

about us

Emergence News Australia is the newsletter of Share International's Australian network – a group of volunteers who work with similar groups worldwide.

Our purpose is to make known information about the emergence of the Spiritual Hierarchy and their concerns. These include realization by humanity of our divine nature; a world at peace; restoration of the environment; sharing of the world's resources; and adequate and appropriate food, housing, healthcare and education for all people.

We are not affiliated with any religious group; we respect the truth at the heart of—and common to—all spiritual traditions.

While the name Maitreya is used by others, their understanding of the World Teacher may not correspond to that presented by Share International.

Anyone presently promoting him, or herself as Maitreya or the World Teacher is definitely not the same individual we refer to.

Messages from Maitreya

Between September 1977 and June 1982, British author and lecturer Benjamin Creme received a series of 140 Messages from Maitreya, the World Teacher.

These Messages were given during Creme's public lectures in London via a process of mental overshadowing or spiritual telepathy, which is not related to mediumship or channelling.

Through these communications, Maitreya suggests the lines that social change must take, and evokes the desire to share and serve humanity. He also gives hints on how to recognize him and urges people to make known the fact of his presence.

Message No. 12

January 10, 1978

My dear friends, I am happy to be with you once more, and to reveal to you My thoughts on man's problem.

Man's problem today, as always, is of his own making; it is not inherent in the Plan of God.

By the misuse of his divine freewill, man has placed his future, and that of all the kingdoms, in jeopardy.

Many today are beginning to realise this and are taking such steps as they can to avert catastrophe.

This is good.

But not all men see the danger which faces mankind in increasing potency.

Time is short indeed for the reconstruction of our world along lines more befitting man's true role and purpose.

My task is to show you the way, outline the possibilities only, for by man himself must the New World be forged.

There are many today who admit the necessity for change, but still resist it.

There are many today who see the crumbling of the old and outworn world of the past, but cling to the old forms.

But there is a new voice being heard among the nations: the voice of Truth, which contains the hope, the promise, of the New Time.

This voice will increasingly make its impress on the minds of men, for it is the voice of God, speaking through men.

My Masters are with you and will show you the way; I Myself will lead.

Can it be that you will renounce this guidance, this opportunity to rise and progress?

No, My friends, I think not.

I shall show you that the way for man is the way of brotherhood, close co-operation and mutual trust and service.

This is the only way.

All else has failed.

My friends, unless man can do this, man on this Earth will cease to be.

I threaten not, but simply state the truth.

There is but little time left to restore the balance of nature and the world.

Make it your primary task to release to all men the wherewithal to exist in human dignity, as sons of God, brothers all.

Make over, in trust for all men, the produce of the world to the nations of the world.

Do this today as free men, and reap the glory tomorrow as true sons of God.

May the Divine Light and Love and Power of the One Most Holy God fall now upon your hearts and minds.

May this Light, Love and Power show you to yourselves as very God.

'Prince of Peace'

In 2003 at the age of eight, American artistic prodigy Akiane (pronounced ah-kee-ah-nah) Kramarik painted a portrait which she calls "Prince of Peace". On her website, she explains how the painting came about.

"It was God's timing; I had been looking for a Jesus model for two years, and I could not find the right face. Then one day I asked my family to pray with me all day. We petitioned God to send the model right through our front door. The next day a tall carpenter came in. He was so humble, and I was surprised that he agreed to model for me. But a week later he called back to say that he was unworthy to represent his master.

"We all prayed together again, and a few days later he called back to tell us that God wanted him to do it, but he had to cut his hair and beard in three days. So we took a few pictures and I studied his face for a long time. After dozens of sketches, I started painting. It took me 40 hours to finish the first Jesus painting –The Prince of Peace."

Jurij Sizenov Nikolaevich, from Russian television and radio network Shabolovka said, "We compared Akiane's extraordinary painting Prince of Peace with the computerized image taken from the Shroud Of Turin, that was hanging in my office. To our complete shock and marvel we found virtually an exact match! It is a miracle and it must come from God! There are no words to describe how a little 8-year-old girl could portray such wisdom, compassion and love in the eyes she painted.

Benjamin Creme's Master confirms that the 'model' was the Master Jesus.

Benjamin Creme says of the Turin Shroud, "The image on it was deposited intentionally and left there for future generations to hold to the reality of resurrection, because that is what the gospel story is about" and that "the Shroud is yet another of the many miracles or signs which herald the emergence of Maitreya – the World Teacher".

Rotorua, New Zealand 'Star' sighting

A New Zealand farmer filmed what he described as a "strange light" "hovering 20 meters off the ground at 2000 feet away", "just like a big ball of energy pulsing colors of yellow, pinky purple." He commented, "I am really happy to have seen this and now have an open mind." See news report

Benjamin Creme's Master confirms that the "strange light" was Maitreya's light ship. (Share International magazine July/August 2011)

Kiwi miracle

On May1, 2011, a rare kiwi chick was born at the Pukaha Mount Bruce national wildlife centre, Wairarapa New Zealand. The chick, named Manukura, is not an albino but the rare offspring of some North Island Brown Kiwi from Little Barrier Island. Elders from the Rangitane o Wairarapa iwi gave the chick his name. Translated it means "of chiefly status." Rangitane chief executive Jason Kerehi, said tribal elders saw the white chick as a "tohu" or "sign" of new beginnings.

Benjamin Creme's Master confirms that it was a miracle, a sign, manifested by Maitreya. (Share International magazine July/August 2011)

AWARENESS

The following is a compilation of quotes from Benjamin Creme's books on the theme of "Awareness".

Awareness alone is more powerful than nuclear bombs, more powerful than anything else in the universe. Awareness is even "beyond light" and is growing fast now.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p32.

Awareness purifies

Awareness is something so sacred that it purifies the Self and frees it from creation. It brings about salvation and oneness with the Creator. Now that Maitreya Himself has come to teach us we no longer need gurus or saints. We are made aware through Him.

The Self is endless. Awareness is endless.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p35.

Self Awareness

Maitreya is continuing to give experiences to people in all walks of life. His purpose is to free people. "If you can keep your mind and spirit free, then you can understand reality".

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p237.

Awareness is Vishnu, the aspect of Deity which sustains and nurtures mind, spirit and body. Awareness is universal. It does not 'belong' to any religion, nor to any guru, saint, or politician. When you judge, saying 'I am right. You are wrong', you are caught in the web of attachment. The Self must always practice detachment. In this way awareness will grow.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p41.

The path of awareness

The statement of Jesus: "I am the way and the truth and the life; no-one comes to the Father but by Me", means that only through awareness can we reach the Almighty.

This truth is personified in Jesus in the Christian tradition. If you "de-personify" this truth, it can be understood as the principle of awareness.

You cannot reach the Almighty through knowledge and wisdom alone. This path can lead you to deities, essentially creations of the mind. In this there is no salvation.

This is why the way to the Father is 'only through Jesus', or awareness, because in awareness there is no attachment, no desire. In awareness there is no time and space.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, pp53-54.

There are many degrees of awareness. A child is aware of the Self. A baby a few months old, lying in its cot, chuckling to itself, looking around, watching the sky and the trees, can be totally moment to moment, aware of itself as the Self. As soon as he grows to a certain age he will have forgotten it. Only if we get back to being a child would we have that awareness. We can only get to that readiness when we detach from all our conditioning. Then, in this life, if we work on ourselves, physically, astrally, mentally, on our conditioning, that age old conditioning which inhibits our spontaneous response to who we are, as a baby is doing lying in a cot, we could know Self-realization in this life... We are attached to our feelings, our diseases, our memory, our ideas. We are either aware of ourselves as the self with a small 's' or ourselves as the Self with a big 'S'.

But almost no-one can do it, because it means being free of all their conditioning. That is the hard thing; we have to do it in stages. By stages, we grow in awareness of the Self.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. II, p400.

The Self makes itself known through awareness. The Self makes mind, spirit and body aware of reality and thus able to make decisions accordingly. "Awareness, with intelligence, will guide mind, spirit and body. This will create harmony between mind, spirit and body and the Self". Then the Self can use the forces of life to transform things, to effect 'miracles'. Mind, spirit and body are simply vehicles.

Awareness is the light of life. Anything done outside awareness leads to destruction. All thoughts which lead you to selfishness lead you away from awareness. In awareness there is no memory. Memory is only in the mind. All struggle and cure is in the mind, never in awareness. Suffering, depression and craving for drugs are all states of mind. Awareness sets you free and allows you to enjoy life.

Awareness controls the pace of evolution.

Yet, in awareness there is no burden. You remain meticulous, immaculate, pure. There is grace, peace and happiness. Awareness is the mother of creation.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. II, pp245-246.

Awareness is crucial, not only in service, but in every single action you take in life. In fact, in every moment awareness is the be-all and end-all of your reason for being here. You are in incarnation to grow in conscious awareness. This is what evolution is about. You cannot separate awareness in service from awareness in general. Awareness should be the governing factor in everything you do.

Maitreya has said that the Self alone matters. You are that Self, an immortal Being.

"Our pain, our problems, our suffering is due to the fact that we identify with everything and anything other than the Self. So if the Self alone matters, awareness of the Self must be the most important thing we can achieve.

You have to learn how to Be. Most people do not know how to Be. They know how to become; the life of most people, as a personality, is a process of becoming. It is a stage in evolution.

Service is the result of who you are, not what you are. It is who you are that needs to serve, what you are is the vehicle for the service. It provides the time frame, the area, for the activity we call service. Correctly to serve you have to do it with awareness... Living is awareness. It is the experience of Being, here and now – not yesterday, not tomorrow, but here, now.

This moment is where you are and alone is important. The past is not important. It is over, finished, done with. Let it go. The future has not yet come.

If you are truly aware of this moment, you will find that time, too, disappears. Your service goes on as a steady movement outside time.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. II, pp648 -650.

"Ask yourself, 'Who am I?' You will find that you identify with the physical body. We look in the mirror and say "That is me". In this way we are subject to all the limitations of the physical body...

Or we identify with our feelings our sensations, our energies our emotions. These are not us. They were not there yesterday, perhaps they will not be there tomorrow. They are unstable, never the same. If we are an immortal being, they cannot be us. Or we identify with our mind, with the creations of our mind, our memory. We think we are Mr or Mrs so and so with so many children. That is not us, that is our memory, the creation of our mind.

We are an immortal Being and therefore not subject to the limitations of the physical body, the emotional body, or the mind.

How do we become that immortal Being here and now on the physical plane? Maitreya says His way is the most direct, the way of growing awareness. It involves the practice of three attitudes. One, honesty of mind. It is not just being honest and not stealing other people's property... For honesty of mind, what we think, what we say, and what we do must be in a straight line. Two, sincerity of spirit – being who we are, distinct and individual. Not trying to be like someone else, not imitating other people, but speaking from the heart to the heart. Not speaking to provide others with some false idea of ourselves, manipulating them so that they admire or like us. It is being honest in oneself, sincere. The third attitude to practice is detachment. Detachment is the awareness that we are not in the body, the feelings, or the mind. What we find in practice is that these three attitudes are mutually supportive. The more aware we become, the more honest we become, the more sincere. The more sincere we become, the honest we manage to be. The more sincere and honest we become, the more detached we become. The more detached we become, the more sincere and the more honest. These three work together like a yeast.

The more we practice these three attitudes, the greater Self awareness develops. The more Self-awareness develops, the more Self-realization becomes possible. Self awareness leads to Self realization. What is self-realization. It is the goal of life, which, when achieved, makes us a Master. All of the Masters are Self-realized Beings.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. III, pp10-11.

Awareness and children

Awareness will be respected in the home and in the school as a sacred, God-given gift. Awareness is the mother of creation. Awareness can never be divided, nor imposed. Textbooks cannot describe it, because there is no beginning nor end to it. Awareness can only be experienced.

To inspire a very young child to look for God is undivine, because in this way you create isms. Awareness is a seed in all creation and in every individual. If you allow the child to have his natural growth you will allow his awareness to grow; the child will enjoy normal life and will not be dogmatic. In awareness, you do not possess children, yet they come closer to you. Even now, children as young as 9 or 10 are raising funds to feed the hungry. Imagine what they will be like when they are tomorrow's citizens. Children can do it. Politicians cannot do it.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p34.

This is a time when highly evolved beings are moving into the world, in every nation and country, giving experiences to people, showing them a higher life, a higher wisdom. Now for the first time people across the world are feeling that they have a mind, spirit and body; that these must be catered for, that there must be equilibrium, which creates awareness, which leads to salvation (Feb 1990)

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p234.

"You want to achieve salvation from the cycle of birth and death. This means you want to be free of the 'Big Bangs' influence. But knowledge and wisdom on their own will not help you. It is awareness which guides the true Self". In Maitreya's view, this awareness is freedom and salvation. Awareness arises as a result of detachment.

In Maitreya's view; "The body needs bathing every day. You also need to bathe your mind and spirit. Your spirit is the source of energy. Your spirit can become exhausted. You need the water of detachment".

Maitreya's Mission Vol. III, p171.

Detachment, sincerity of spirit, honesty of mind, awareness are themselves the result of a co-operative attitude, and demonstrated, lead to co-operation. You cannot separate these things: right relationship is another word for co-operation, which is another word, as the Masters put it, for unity. Unity, co-operation and right relationship are 3 different ways of expressing the same thing.

The Art of Co-operation, p45.

You can only detach from something if you observe it, recognize it. If you observe it without trying to change it, without justifying it, without rationalization, just simply looking at it you will find that you become more detached. This is true for every glamour.

The Art of Co-operation, p66.

When you surrender the Self to mind, spirit and body, everything is predestined. Anything you do through Self-Awareness is not predestined, because it does not arise out of conditioning.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life p29.

Awareness is the result of the action of consciousness itself. The physical brain, through its mechanism, allows that consciousness to be apprehended. That is awareness.

Awareness is the recognition that you are experiencing something. Consciousness is the faculty of the soul that makes us aware.

Awareness is knowing.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. II, p366.

What is changing? – It is the individual who is changing, experiencing a greater and deeper awareness.

In awareness everything becomes purified.

In awareness everyone is forgiven.

In awareness, the Self realizes he is not the doer, but the witness of creation. The self witnesses the functions of mind, spirit and body but is free of them.

Maitreya's Teachings—The Laws of Life, p32-33.

Q. Is there any specific practice that Maitreya advocates to know God?

A. Maitreya advocates the cultivation of these three: honesty of mind; sincerity of spirit; and detachment – that is detachment from identifying with the body, the feelings and sensations, and with the mind. These are the vehicles of the Self and should not be mistaken for the Self. He also advocates the use of the New Age Prayer to achieve Self-awareness.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. III, p53.

A Prayer for the New Age, given by Maitreya the Christ, is a great mantram or affirmation with an invocative effect. Using this prayer will enable one to recognize that man and God are one, that there is no separation. The 'I' is the Divine Principle behind all creation. The Self emanates from, and is identical to, the Divine Principle.

The most effective way to use this mantram is to say or think the words with focused will, the attention at the ajna center between the eyebrows. When the mind grasps the meaning of the concept and, simultaneously, the will is brought to bear, then those concepts will be activated and the mantram will work. If it is said seriously every day, there will grow inside you a realization of your true Self.

If repeated daily, the prayer will gradually confer an awareness of the Self. That awareness eventually develops into Self-realization, which is perfection.

A Prayer for the New Age

I am the creator of the universe.

I am the father and mother of the universe.

Everything comes from me.

Everything shall return to me.

Mind, spirit and body are my temples,
for the self to realize in them

My supreme being and becoming.

The World Teacher for all Humanity, p111.

Books by Benjamin Creme

Since 1980, Benjamin Creme has published 15 inspiring and provocative books, painting an ever more detailed picture of humanity's destiny, both worldly and spiritually. "We are talking about nothing less than the total transformation of every aspect of our lives", he says. Each book covers a vast range of topics: from meditation and the growth of consciousness to political and economic change; from initiation and group work to ecology and world service. Compelling explanations are offered for the ever-increasing 'miraculous' or unexplained phenomena such as weeping Madonnas, crosses of light, healing waters, crop circles and UFOs.

A Master Speaks

3rd edition, April 2004 (452 pages)

A Master Speaks is a compilation of 223 articles given by the Master —, between 1982 and 2003. Topics include: Health and healing; Life in the New Age; Human rights; Sharing for peace; The problem of AIDS; The new education; The promise of the future; The end of hunger; Aiding the cause of peace; The secret of living; Rise of people power; The ending of bondage.

EXCERPT FROM THE PREFACE by Benjamin Creme.

In every age, major and lesser spiritual teachers have guided humanity. We know them, among others, as Hercules, Hermes, Rama, Mithra, Vyasa, Sankaracharya, Krishna, Buddha, the Christ and Mohammed. They are the custodians of a Plan for the evolution of humanity and the other kingdoms of nature. This Plan works out through the agency of the esoteric Hierarchy of Masters of the Wisdom.

The Masters are those members of the human family who have made the evolutionary journey ahead of us; who, having perfected themselves — by the same steps by which we advance — have accepted the responsibility of guiding the rest of us to that same achievement. They have stood behind the whole evolutionary process, guiding and helping us, through a gradual expansion of consciousness, to become, like them, perfected and illumined.

The majority of the Masters live in the remote mountain and desert areas of the world, contacting the world but seldom, and doing their work through their disciples, mainly by telepathic communication. It is through this means that I have the privilege of being in contact with one of the Masters. For various reasons his identity may not be revealed for the time being, but I may say that he is one of the senior members of the Hierarchy, Whose name is well known to esotericists in the West.

His information, training and stimulus have enabled me to do the work I am engaged in: making known that Maitreya, the Christ, the supreme head of the Hierarchy of Masters, is in the world. He has been in London since July 1977. There he lives and works as a modern man, concerned with modern problems — political, economic and social. He is a spiritual but not a religious teacher, an educator in the broadest sense of the word, showing the way out of the present world crisis.

One of the means by which my co-workers and I spread this information is the monthly magazine Share International. Since its beginning, in January 1982, my Master has been kind enough to write an article for every issue. The articles contain a wealth of wisdom, insight and information, and to make it easier to read them, we have collected them in one volume, under the title A Master Speaks.

Transmission Meditation

Transmission Meditation is a group service activity which 'steps down' the great spiritual energies that continually stream into our planet. During transmission, the Masters of Wisdom direct these energies from the spiritual planes through the energy centres (chakras) of the group members in a highly scientific manner. This process, which makes the energies more useful to humanity and the other kingdoms in nature, is similar to that of electrical transformers, which step down the power between electrical generators and households.

Transmission Meditation is safe, scientific, non-denominational, and extremely potent. It will not interfere with any other religious or spiritual practice. In fact it will enhance your personal meditation and any other service activities in which you may be engaged. No special expertise in meditation is required in order to transmit energy.

There are more than 600 Transmission groups in 40 countries worldwide meeting on a regular basis.

Service

"When the world's resources are at last shared, and peace and justice are facts of life, many avenues of service and of knowledge will open up before those who are willing and anxious to serve. Meanwhile, the bringing of sanity and justice to the world is the number one priority and there are many open doors for people who truly want to serve."

The Gathering of the Forces of Light, p170.
