

Creating the Sword of Cleavage

by the Master —, through Benjamin Creme, 8 September 2011

From time to time, there appears among men a figure who embodies the best, or the worst, that men can show. These individuals become the most loved or the most hated of men. In either case, they usually draw to themselves many followers or devotees. Such figures have enormous magnetic appeal for the majority of men or, on occasion, are an inspiring example of destructive power on a large scale. The history books are full of examples of both types.

Today, in large numbers, many examples of both types are manifesting worldwide. The effect of this manifestation is to set before humanity two opposing lines of action, and so create the tension of choice which will determine the future of the race. In biblical terms this is the 'Sword of Cleavage'. For many years the energies emanating from, and directed by Maitreya have sought to create such confrontation of opposites. This may seem strange indeed to many people but it is essential that humanity make the correct choices for its future. Otherwise that future would be bleak indeed.

The Sword of Cleavage is the energy we call Love: wielded by Maitreya it sets "brother against brother" and tests the true divine consciousness of men everywhere. The ultimate aim of all evolution is to establish on Earth the 'Kingdom of God', and the Sword of Cleavage shows men the way.

The teaching of Maitreya is simple. One might think that His priorities would seem obvious to all men; sadly this is not the case. Maitreya presents a future of tranquillity and peaceful endeavour as the inevitable result of sharing and justice for all, the creation of a world "where no man lacks, where no two days are alike, where the Joy of Brotherhood manifests through all men". How is it possible, you might think, to gainsay such a message of hope? Is this not the future yearned for by everyone? It is the future hoped for by the majority of men, but not by all. Humanity stands on different rungs of the evolutionary ladder; above a certain level all bodes well for men. It is those who have not as yet manifested that measure of their divine Self who do not recognize that sharing is divine, that justice and right relationship are divine, but who see Divinity as competition and conflict, and register a man's worth by the weight of his gold.

Many are fearful and suffering; bereft of work and hope for the future, they struggle from day to day. But many others are making their future for themselves, and many, too, are dying in the process. Throughout the world men are awakening to the possibility of a better life with freedom and justice at its heart. Have no fear, the people's voice is rising and like a contagion affecting more and more. Maitreya stands behind those who live – and die – for the truth of freedom, justice and the unity of man. The young lead the way, and the future is for them.

The Master —, is a senior member of the Hierarchy of the Masters of Wisdom. His name, well-known in esoteric circles, is not yet being revealed for various reasons.

about us

Emergence News Australia is the newsletter of Share International's Australian network – a group of volunteers who work with similar groups worldwide.

Our purpose is to make known information about the emergence of the Spiritual Hierarchy and their concerns. These include realization by humanity of our divine nature; a world at peace; restoration of the environment; sharing of the world's resources; and adequate and appropriate food, housing, healthcare and education for all people.

We are not affiliated with any religious group; we respect the truth at the heart of—and common to—all spiritual traditions.

While the name Maitreya is used by others, their understanding of the World Teacher may not correspond to that presented by Share International.

Anyone presently promoting him, or herself as Maitreya or the World Teacher is definitely not the same individual we refer to.

Messages from Maitreya

Between September 1977 and June 1982, British author and lecturer Benjamin Creme received a series of 140 Messages from Maitreya, the World Teacher.

These Messages were given during Creme's public lectures in London via a process of mental overshadowing or spiritual telepathy, which is not related to mediumship or channelling.

Through these communications, Maitreya suggests the lines that social change must take, and evokes the desire to share and serve humanity. He also gives hints on how to recognize him and urges people to make known the fact of his presence.

Message No. 135

February 2, 1982

My dear friends, I am happy indeed to be with you once more in this fashion.

My Emergence proceeds.

Quickly, now, I enter the world's arena.

Within the coming months all shall see My face, shall hear My words of Truth, shall gather around Me in spirit and follow My lead.

Wherefore, then, need you fear?

A condition for My Coming was that men should share.

This divine principle now engages the minds of many.

Already the leaders gather and seek to implement this principle.

My message of Hope enters the hearts of all and quickens their love of Truth.

My friends, I am here with you to show you the way to Peace, which is the way to God.

Simple Justice will take you there.

Know this and create around you Justice and Love.

Know this and be ready to respond to My lead.

My Teaching is, as ever, simple indeed.

Men must share or die.

Loath am I to say this, but such is the truth, and many today now see this.

Forming themselves into groups, men of goodwill will brandish aloft their hopes and dreams of Justice and Peace.

This clamour will light the torch of Truth among the nations, and at its centre shall I be found.

Make way in your hearts for My Truth.

Make way in your hearts for My Love.

Manifest that Love around you and know the meaning of Life.

Create thus the forms which will henceforth allow you to manifest as Gods.

Do this with joy, My friends, and enter your heritage.

May the Divine Light and Love and Power of the One Most Holy God be now manifest within your hearts and minds.

May this manifestation lead you to see each other as the Gods you are.

THE NEW POLITICS – THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

A compilation of quotes from Benjamin Creme's books and Share International magazine on the unfolding global political and economic turmoil.

We are nearing a time of major change in the world: before long, the transformation of all structures will begin, commencing with the dissolution of the stock markets as they now function. This will release the pressures now being imposed on governments by currency speculation, and allow a fair and equitable trading system to be developed. Short-term measures must recognize the special and urgent need of poorer nations for succour. In particular, the problems of hunger and disease must be addressed without delay. New methods of distribution of resources, based on sharing and need, will supplant the present chaotic modes which so divide the world. The blind following of market forces, whose myopic rule causes such misery today, will give way to an enlightened and just consideration for the needs of all.

*"The unfolding Plan", Share International magazine
July/August 1995*

The number one priority is to replace this deeply divisive and cruel economic system with something better. Maitreya has spelled it out many times: the principle of sharing is the only one that will save humanity from self destruction.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. 3, p567

Obviously if the stock markets collapse the present economic structure collapses with them – it is already collapsing. What we have today are the G7 nations, the seven major industrialized countries, dominating the world's economy, determining how the world as a whole will live, even though they comprise only one third of the world's population. They impose on the other two thirds their structure, their modus operandi, which is commercialization, "competition" based in their favour, the action of market forces, and so on. This is grinding the world to it's knees, everywhere, even in the developed world, so you can imagine what it is like for the developing world. This is economic totalitarianism and must come to an end. It is based on the lie that we all start equal; we do not. The new economic structure will be based on the best of capitalism and the best of socialism... Eventually, the general political form will be Democratic Socialism, or Social Democracy.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. 3, pp116-117

Maitreya says when that happens [economic collapse], the priorities of all governments will change. He says the number one priority of all governments will become the provision of correct, adequate food for all the people: it is the number one necessity; two, the provision of adequate shelter for all the people; three, the provision of adequate health care; and four, educational facilities for all the people. These are the basics which do not seem too much to ask for – enough food, shelter, health care, and education. Yet there is no country in the world – not even the US, the most powerful militarily, and once the richest, country in the world – not anywhere do these four requirements pertain as a universal right. He says that when they do, they will transform the world.

The first step is the sharing of the world's resources, because if we do not do this we will destroy ourselves. It is as simple as that. We have free will. Maitreya is not going to interfere and make sure that we do not destroy ourselves. He is going to present us with these alternatives: carry on as we are today in the old, greedy, selfish, competitive ways of the past and destroy ourselves, or else accept that we are one, accept the principle of sharing; implement it, create justice in the world, and therefore peace, and begin the construction under His inspiration of a most brilliant and wonderful civilization such as this world has never known.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. 3, p118

World collapse: Not only large financial institutions which are tumbling into bankruptcy; the whole world is becoming bankrupt – mentally and spiritually. The world is going through a huge crisis and all the medicines have been tried and failed. The tumour has to burst open before the healing can begin.

The world is in such a chaotic state that it could happen at any time. The politicians and the generals can do nothing to stop it – everything they have tried to avert disaster has failed.

Even the United Nations is being forced to serve the interests of the strong and the greedy. Only charitable institutions like Oxfam are caring for the weak and the needy; governments are too caught up in killing and destroying.

Crime is on the increase throughout the Western world. Look at the faces of politicians; they have no sparkle. What is happening is beyond their comprehension. The world is like a volcano waiting to erupt – in fact it is only a matter of time before it bursts open

Maitreya's Teachings – The Laws of Life pp109-110

Dissolving old patterns: The dissolution of ancient patterns of thought and behaviour has begun. Polarities will dissolve. Extreme differences between rich and poor will begin to disappear Political and religious rigidities will dissolve. New forms of government will arise across the globe.

People everywhere are becoming aware, and will be unwilling to be dominated by others when their destiny is to be free. Governments everywhere will have to listen to the people. "Governments will be by the people, for the people."

Right across the world present political systems of government are being diluted and will eventually give birth to new systems of government which will be much more representational. Ordinary people, intellectuals, educationalists and others from a variety of walks of life will find they have a genuine voice in government.

Everything is moving so fast now that events are beyond the control of the politicians. All political systems that divide the world, that create rich and poor, will come to an end.

A new political era has begun in which awareness informs everyone of their basic human rights, their liberties and their responsibilities to themselves and each other. There will be resistance to this new political approach... but it will not succeed. The divisions are increasing now, but in the end these politicians will have to give in to the new energies that are sweeping the world.

Maitreya's Teachings – The Laws of Life, pp192-194

The powerful events – now daily happenings – throughout the world are awakening men's realization that they are witnessing the death-throes of a dying culture, and, by implication, the creation of a new.

The form that the new culture might take remains, for the most part, vague and unsubstantial, but one factor has already registered itself in the minds of public and media alike; the growing strength of the people's voice and the growing determination to make that voice be heard. This is the most important political event of our time. Throughout the world, the peoples of the nations are taking control of their destiny and demanding their rights. The inner call for freedom, intrinsic to their divinity, unites people of all races and creeds, and, in growing crescendo, will echo and re-echo until the last bastions of tyranny crumble and men can inherit their birthright. That is the future awaited by all men.

A Master Speaks, pp223-224

The goal for humanity in this coming age is the creation of group consciousness, the sense of being integral parts of a Whole. The new energies entering this planet from the constellation Aquarius work in this direction; their intrinsic quality is synthesis and universality.

We are about to witness profound changes in all our institutions and structures – political and economic, religious and social, scientific, educational and cultural. These changes will take place as humanity grasps, stage by stage, its essential Oneness, and adopts the measures necessary to implement that Oneness.

The first human priority is the saving of the millions now starving to death in the Third World... There is nothing more urgent or important to do in the world today.

Maitreya's Mission Vol. 1, p113

More and more, these same demands for participation and justice are being heard throughout the world. The young in particular are sensing the need for a new kind of world, one which allows them to develop and express themselves, free from the old dogmas of their elders. What we are witnessing is nothing less than a renaissance of the young people of the Earth, freeing themselves from the tyranny of hatred and war, bigotry and separation. Nothing can for long halt their progress. This is the New Time and the young are testing themselves in the struggle for new life.

Listen keenly to the young, they have the future safely in their hearts. Not for nothing was it the young of Tahir Square who sat at Maitreya's feet as He taught them the ways of the future, the ways of the New Time, the Time of Peace, Justice and Sharing, of Freedom and Love.

Share International magazine, May 2011, p3

[I]t should be not much more than about two years before the first clear signs of change are discernible. There will follow a period of change which few would conceive possible in so short a period of time: the present upsurge of demands for freedom and involvement in their own destiny which has been manifested so strongly by the people of the Middle East will sweep across the world and involve country after country, large and small. Thus will the Voice of the People grow ever stronger and more eloquent. More and more, men and women everywhere will begin to understand clearly their needs and their invincible strength to claim their birthright.

Thus a new society will evolve with remarkable speed, one that holds sacred the right of all people to self-determination, the democratic right to involvement in their society and their future; their right to adequate living standards, healthcare and education. Above all, men will claim the right to live in peace.

Share International Magazine, June 2011, p3

Do you think people power will succeed in Libya and Syria?

Eventually, throughout the world, people power, inspired by Maitreya and under the banner of freedom, sharing and justice, will succeed.

Share International Magazine, June 2011, p23

Look at the events in Cairo, Alexandria and Suez and take heart. People power is invincible

Share International magazine, April 2011, p27

It is the voice of the people, and the people have awakened to their unity and power. For the old despots, the writing is on the wall.

Share International magazine, March 2011, p3

The World can be fixed... If citizens around the world recognize the power they have through their virtual presence via the internet and social networking and decide to stop being passive subjects and begin to take action.

Share International Magazine, September 2011, p4

Join together with groups and work to create the 'voice of the people.' Add your voice to the voice of all the other people – the ordinary people not in positions of glamorous power and illusionary wisdom. Add your weight by marching on demonstrations whenever they are arranged. Build up the concept of 'the people's voice' – which eventually will be the most powerful force in the world when it is educated by the ideas of Maitreya, focused by Maitreya, approaching the various problems of humanity in a realistic way. This will build up the most powerful force: of an educated, focused, world public opinion – a force against which no government can stand. Add your voice to the voices of the countless millions.

Make your voice be heard. Speak out for what you believe. If you believe in justice and freedom for all – say so. Write articles, send them to the newspapers. Make known your mind on this, as your contribution to humanity's liberation from the ancient thralldom of glamour, illusion and oppression.

Books by Benjamin Creme

Since 1980, Benjamin Creme has published 15 inspiring and provocative books, painting an ever more detailed picture of humanity's destiny, both worldly and spiritually. "We are talking about nothing less than the total transformation of every aspect of our lives", he says. Each book covers a vast range of topics: from meditation and the growth of consciousness to political and economic change; from initiation and group work to ecology and world service. Compelling explanations are offered for the ever-increasing 'miraculous' or unexplained phenomena such as weeping Madonnas, crosses of light, healing waters, crop circles and UFOs.

The Ageless Wisdom Teaching

June 1996 (79 pages)

Excerpt from the introduction

In every age, or in times of exceptional crisis, great spiritual teachers have come into the world to enable mankind to take its next evolutionary step. We know them, among others, as Hercules, Rama, Sankaracharya, Krishna, Buddha, Mohammed and the Christ. Each has given a body of teaching, a central and common theme of which is 'right human relations'.

From such simple teachings men have historically constructed complex dogma and ritual, willing to kill and be killed in the name of their ideology. Such religious intolerance has been, and continues to be, the basis for much of the discord and suffering in the world. When men and women of every faith come to understand that they share a common spiritual legacy, as children of One Father – by whatever name their tradition chooses to call Him – a new era of brotherhood and peace will begin.

This common wellspring of wisdom is an ancient body of spiritual teaching handed down from generation to generation, and known as the 'Ageless Wisdom'. As an esoteric science – meaning simply that it lies beyond the understanding or comprehension of the average person – it presents a systematic and comprehensive account of the evolutionary process, in man and nature, from an energetic standpoint: how the universe came to exist, how it operates, and man's place within it. Esotericism, as it is sometimes called, is also the art of working with those energies which emanate from the highest spiritual sources. From behind the scenes, these teachings have guided and shaped civilization after civilization, leading to all the great advances in human endeavor, be they in the sciences, politics, the arts or religion.

The Ageless Wisdom teaching was first made available to the general public around 1875 by Helena Petrovna Blavatsky in her seminal works: The Secret Doctrine and Isis Unveiled. Blavatsky established the Theosophical Society to introduce this 'new' perspective on history and human evolution. The intermediate phase of the teaching was revealed by Alice A. Bailey who, from 1919 to 1949, collaborated with a Master of Wisdom known as 'the Tibetan'. Through a process of telepathic overshadowing, the Master Djwhal Khul communicated a vast body of information about the world and its future. Since 1974, British artist Benjamin Creme has been the source of further revelations concerning the Ageless Wisdom and, in particular, about the reappearance of Maitreya, the Christ and World Teacher for the coming age – information which Creme receives through his moment-to-moment telepathic contact with a Master of Wisdom.

Benjamin Creme's books are available from us — see details on last page.

Transmission Meditation

Transmission Meditation is a group service activity which 'steps down' the great spiritual energies that continually stream into our planet. During transmission, the Masters of Wisdom direct these energies from the spiritual planes through the energy centres (chakras) of the group members in a highly scientific manner. This process, which makes the energies more useful to humanity and the other kingdoms in nature, is similar to that of electrical transformers, which step down the power between electrical generators and households.

Transmission Meditation is safe, scientific, non-denominational, and extremely potent. It will not interfere with any other religious or spiritual practice. In fact it will enhance your personal meditation and any other service activities in which you may be engaged. No special expertise in meditation is required in order to transmit energy.

There are more than 600 Transmission groups in 40 countries worldwide meeting on a regular basis.

Service

"When the world's resources are at last shared, and peace and justice are facts of life, many avenues of service and of knowledge will open up before those who are willing and anxious to serve. Meanwhile, the bringing of sanity and justice to the world is the number one priority and there are many open doors for people who truly want to serve."

The Gathering of the Forces of Light, p170.

South Australia

Beyond 2012 – A Golden Age. A public talk by Antonio on 13 August at Cosmic Pages bookshop, Adelaide.

I presented a glimpse of the future, by introducing the fact of the Masters presence in the world.

I touched upon subjects like New Age Healing through sound and colour, the Technology of Light as the energy source to come after cold fusion. I mentioned telepathy, teleportation, the concept of time, Healing Waters, and the problem of drugs. I also mentioned the Seven Rays and the Mystery schools of the future, and that Australia will have a advanced mystery school. I touched upon the subject of death, and losing the fear of death by relating the story of Hercules and the nine headed Hydra. I explained the meaning of crop circles while quashing the stories of alien abductions.

I also talked about the Miracles around the world, displaying an example of a Cross of Light. All those attending had a sample of the Nordenau Water .

I concluded by talking about the principle of sharing, pointing out how removed from our spiritual nature we have become, given the way we treat the planet and each other. The talk was attended by 36 people.

With Great Respect and Love, Antonio.

Talk to meditation group

Recently I had the opportunity to speak to a group of 14 women who meet on a weekly basis for meditation. Their group leader came to our stand at the Mind Body & Psychic expo in Adelaide and was so moved by the story, she asked if I would go and share the story with her small group. She loved the posters and layout of the stand and asked if I could please bring the beautiful posters that Tony Palena had so lovingly made up, and of course the small cross of light.

I went along with all the requested accessories to share this most precious story of hope, divine guidance and a positive future for all.

I shared the Emergence of Maitreya, his guidelines and words of inspiration and his outline for the Golden Age ahead. I also shared Benjamin Creme's information about our space brothers and the many pictures of the crop circles, which they found so interesting.

All present were uplifted and moved by this story of hope and inspiration and many cried when I read out the words and teachings of Maitreya from the poster. As Maitreya has said "When you think of me I am there." I feel many of the women responded to Maitreya's felt presence and love.

We did a small meditation and I shared that I would be happy to come and guide them, to help them get started if they wanted to start their own Transmission meditation group. At the end they all eagerly collected all the information hand outs and I hope they share the story and information with many of their friends and family.

This is another small contribution where 14 more people with the potential to share and spread the story to many others has been added to the collective work of all those here in Australia, who are committed to serving and sharing this most life uplifting event and hope for all Humanity.

In Love & Service, Lisa Cassetta
