The search for peace

by the Master —, through Benjamin Creme, 13 June 2010

Without doubt, the most important achievement by humanity would be the ending of war. This achieved, men's energies would be released to tackle the many other pressing problems which beset them today: the millions who starve needlessly in a world of plenty; the precarious ecological imbalance of the planet; the ever-widening gap between the developed rich and the developing poor nations; the growing incidence and fear of terrorism, ever more sophisticated; the hardship and fear engendered by the economic collapse around the world.

Some governments try to cope with some of these difficult problems while still others are main culprits and instigators of them. What can humanity do? How to start when each problem grows out of another, and all seem intractable?

From Our viewpoint, these problems are real and pressing, and stem from one single condition: the separatism which sits like a heavy yoke on the shoulders of humanity and prevents all action in unison. Ideology rather than reason still guides the minds and actions of governments whose decisions affect the lives of all. They seek friends and allies to support their position, and thus are built the power blocks which strive for supremacy in the minds and hearts of men.

Today, this problem is increased by the re-opening of the religious divide between Christianity and Islam. In a growingly secular world, the fundamentalist adherents of both religions are more and more bellicose, raising the temperature of confrontation to ever more dangerous heights. In particular, Islamic terrorism, in complete contradiction to the teaching of the Prophet, has brought a new dimension to the struggle for a peaceful world. How can this process be reversed? There is but one way to grapple with these problems, one which has never been tried but which, at a stroke, would ease the lot of countless millions and bring, at long, long last, true and lasting peace to a world in agony.

Seamless

Men must realize that they are not separate, never were and never shall be, that they are part of a divine and seamless whole which enfolds us all, to which, in our own way, we give the name of God. Men must realize that God is peace, is justice, sharing and trust, and that their fear is also the fear of their brothers. Maitreya's task is to show men this truth, and to remind them that at the core of their yearning lies the peace they all desire, waiting to be made manifest.

The Master —, is a senior member of the Hierarchy (not Maitreya) of the Masters of Wisdom; his name, well-known in esoteric circles, is not yet being revealed for various reasons.

about us

Share International Australia is a network of volunteers who work with similar groups worldwide.

Our purpose is to make known information about the emergence of the Spiritual Hierarchy and their concerns. These include realization by humanity of our divine nature; a world at peace; restoration of the environment; sharing of the world's resources; and adequate and appropriate food, housing, healthcare and education for all people.

We are not affiliated with any religious group; we respect the truth at the heart of — and common to — all spiritual traditions.

While the name Maitreya is used by others, their understanding of the World Teacher may not correspond to that presented by Share International.

Anyone presently promoting him - or herself as Maitreya or the World Teacher is definitely not the same individual we refer to.

Who is Maitreya?

Maitreya (pronounced my-tray-uh) is the personal name of the Head of the Spiritual Hierarchy.

He is expected by the world's major religions as the Messiah, Krishna, the Imam Mahdi, Maitreya Buddha, and the Christ. Although the names are different, they all refer to the same individual: Maitreya, the World Teacher.

An Avatar for the new age, He returns as the Teacher and guide for all humanity, religious and non-religious alike. He comes with His group, the Masters of Wisdom. Together, they will inspire humanity to create a brilliant new civilisation based on justice and sharing. He will launch a call to action to save the millions of people who starve to death every year in a world of plenty.

Among Maitreya's recommendations will be a shift in social priorities so that adequate food, housing, clothing, education, and medical care become universal rights. His open mission in the world is about to begin. As Maitreya himself has said: "Soon, now very soon, you will see my face and hear my words."

Maitreya, as he appeared in June 1988 to a crowd in Nairobi, Kenya.

Maitreya steps forward

The way prepared by His Herald the 'star', Maitreya, the World Teacher, has given His first interview on American television. Millions have heard Him speak both on TV and the internet.

His open mission has begun.

He was introduced not as Maitreya, the World Teacher and Head of our Spiritual Hierarchy, but simply as a man, one of us. In this way He "ensures that men follow and support Him for the truth and sanity of His ideas rather than for His status".

He spoke earnestly of the need for peace, achievable only through the creation of justice and the sharing of the world's resources.

This is the first of many such interviews which will be given in the USA, Japan, Europe and elsewhere, bringing His message of hope to the world.

Benjamin Creme made this announcement at his public lecture at Friends House, Euston Road, London, on 14 January 2010.

Please note: Share International has no further details about this interview (date, time, network, etc.), for the following reason: it is very important that everyone has the opportunity to respond to Maitreya because they want for the world what He is advocating — sharing, justice and peace — rather than because they think He may be the World Teacher.

UPDATE

Maitreya has now given nineteen interviews. So far, they have all been in the US, on the same television channel, usually accompanied by an internet broadcast. The interviews have occurred at about the same time of day, and last on average for half an hour. He uses the same name each time – not Maitreya but another name which He will use until the Day of Declaration.

Transmission Meditation

Transmission Meditation is a group service activity which 'steps down' the great spiritual energies that continually stream into our planet. During transmission, the Masters of Wisdom direct these energies from the spiritual planes through the energy centers (chakras) of the group members in a highly scientific manner. This process, which makes the energies more useful to humanity and the other kingdoms in nature, is similar to that of electrical transformers, which step down the power between electrical generators and households.

Transmission Meditation is safe, scientific, non-denominational, and extremely potent. It will not interfere with any other religious or spiritual practice. In fact it will enhance your personal meditation and any other service activities in which you may be engaged. No special expertise in meditation is required in order to transmit energy.

There are more than 600 Transmission groups in 40 countries worldwide meeting on a regular basis.

The Great Invocation

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

The Great Invocation is an ancient prayer, translated by Hierarchy into modern words. It was used by the Christ for the first time in 1945, at the same time as he announced his decision to emerge into physical contact with humanity. It was released by Him to humanity to enable man himself to invoke the energies which would change our world, and make possible the return of the Christ and Hierarchy. It has been translated into many languages and is used today in almost every country in the world.

The Great Invocation is used at the beginning of Transmission Meditation to invoke or call forth energy, which is then transmitted. It should be said aloud, with the attention focussed on the ajna centre between the eyebrows.

Messages from Maitreya

Between September 1977 and June 1982, British author and lecturer Benjamin Creme received a series of 140 Messages from Maitreya, the World Teacher.

These Messages were given during Creme's public lectures in London via a process of mental overshadowing or spiritual telepathy, which is not related to mediumship or channelling.

Through these communications, Maitreya suggests the lines that social change must take, and evokes the desire to share and serve humanity. He also gives hints on how to recognize him and urges people to make known the fact of his presence.

Message No. 7

October 20, 1977

Good evening, My dear friends.

I am happy indeed to speak to you once more in this way.

My Plan is working out, but will entail the greatest service and sacrifice from those among you who accept that I am in the world.

If you can make known this fact on a wide enough scale, it will not be long indeed till the world knows My face.

My aim is to shorten this time yet further, but an early declaration of My Presence depends on you, depends on your will to serve.

Become My people, and do this work for Me.
Become My friends, and serve your brothers.
Become My children, and know God.

This is no easy task I set you, for men are blind.
But when mankind knows that I am here, I am certain that it will respond from its heart, and let Me lead.

My people are everywhere.
Join them.

Become one of them.

Make this life a crowning achievement, and take part in the Great Plan.

I ask you to do this because you have come into the world for this.
You are here, not by chance, but to serve at this time your brothers and sisters.

Seize then this opportunity, presented to you with love.

My Blessings are upon you all.

May the Divine Light and Love and Power of the One God be now manifest within your hearts and minds.

May this manifestation lead you to know that God dwells ever within you. Seek within, and make It manifest.

Books by Benjamin Creme

Since 1980, Benjamin Creme has published 14 inspiring and provocative books, painting an ever more detailed picture of humanity's destiny, both worldly and spiritually. "We are talking about nothing less than the total transformation of every aspect of our lives", he says. Each book covers a vast range of topics: from meditation and the growth of consciousness to political and economic change; from initiation and group work to ecology and world service. Compelling explanations are offered for the ever-increasing 'miraculous' or unexplained phenomena such as weeping Madonnas, crosses of light, healing waters, crop circles and UFOs.

The Great Approach

320 pages (2nd edition, 2002)

The Great Approach: New Light and Life for Humanity is about the coming into the world of the Masters of Wisdom, with their leader Maitreya, the Christ, as World Teacher; and about the implications for humanity, as well as for the Masters themselves, of this great event.

The book is divided into three independent but related parts. It includes articles from Benjamin Creme's Master, Mr Creme's own edited talks, and a very wide range of questions and answers arising from these talks.

Part One, 'Life Ahead for Humanity', provides an overview of the background and history of the Masters and their return to the everyday world. In particular, it focuses on the events leading to the gradual emergence of Maitreya and to the Day of his Declaration. This will be an extraordinary 'Pentecostal' experience for humanity, and the start of the gradual transformation of all our structures and institutions. This section also deals with market forces and commercialization, and through Maitreya's influence the creation of a just economic order. The environment and pollution are underlined as major priorities and the various activities of 'extraterrestrials' in ameliorating this crisis are revealed. It also covers his concerns for the problems of humanity, such as the divisions in the world, especially the plight of millions in developing countries, and it puts forward his proposals for solving these problems.

Part Two, 'The Great Approach', deals with that most extraordinary event, the externalization of the work of the Spiritual Hierarchy onto the physical plane for the first time in 98,000 years in their role as teachers. This is a climactic event for the Masters themselves, as well as for humanity: they return to physical-plane activity, only now in group formation, in order to re-enact their own life expression in preparation for the Way of the Higher Evolution. This is part of the long-term plan of the coming together of the Masters and humanity, and the evolution of Hierarchy Itself as a centre on this planet. In their relation to humanity, the Masters, with Maitreya at their head, have provided a blueprint for the future of a brilliant, transformed world free from want and war.

Part Three begins with a commentary on an article by Benjamin Creme's Master, 'Let there be Light', which was previously published in Share International magazine. It deals with Light from the esoteric point of view, including the Light of Knowledge, the Christ Principle, Cosmic Electricity and the new Science of Light, which will transform our future. An extraordinary vista opens before us of awareness and discovery.

Mr Creme describes our long evolutionary journey, and how each incarnation adds a modicum of light to the matter of our vehicles – physical, emotional and mental. The different aspects of light are discussed, and the Christ Principle introduced as the first Master, through the soul. The Light of Knowledge is released into the world by the Masters, so bringing us into the initiatory experience. This esoteric process is shown as the method by which we expand our consciousness to work intelligently with the Plan of evolution, and eventually to become a Master.

Miracles

Over many years Maitreya and his group of Masters have saturated the world with miracles. In the 10th message from Maitreya given in 1977 at one of Benjamin Creme's public meetings in London, he said: "Those who search for signs will find them, but my method of manifestation is more simple." All religious groups look for signs. It is through the signs that they know the teacher is in the world or is coming into the world. You only have to keep awake and you will see that signs are everywhere. In every country in the world, in every religious setting, there are signs of one kind or another.

Sathya Sai Baba miracles at Sri Ranga Patna orphanage, Mysore, India

The Sri Ranga Patna orphanage, founded in 1984, is located 15km north of the city of Mysore, India. A small temple or shrine is part of the orphanage. Many of the photographs of Sai Baba in this temple materialize vibhuti. The temple also houses some small amulets bearing pictures of Sathya Sai Baba and Shirdi Sai Baba. The amulets were blessed by Sathya Sai Baba more than 30 years ago, immediately after which they began manifesting Amritha (sacred nectar). Manifestations of amritha (and vibhuti) have also appeared in other parts of the world.

Sai Baba is a cosmic avatar. He is a Spiritual Regent, sent into the world by the Lord of the World, Sanat Kumara. Sai Baba embodies the energy of Love at a cosmic level (the Christ embodies this energy at the planetary level) and his work, in part, is to prepare humanity for the work of the Christ. – Benjamin Creme

Weeping Madonna, Rockingham, WA

Statues of the Madonna that weep tears of oil or blood have been documented all over the world, including Australia.

In March 2002, a fibreglass statue of the Madonna in Rockingham, 50 kilometres south of Perth, began shedding rose-scented, oily tears. The oil has been linked with cases of healing. Later, the rose-scented oil began appearing in other places at the house where the statue is kept. Apparitions of the Madonna were witnessed from November 2003 to January 2004. After one such event, in December 2003, footprints remained on the concrete paving.

Benjamin Creme's Master confirms that the Master Who was the Madonna was responsible for both the apparitions and the miracle manifestations.

In addition to the Tlacote healing water remedy, we have arranged supply of homeopathic remedies based on the Sai Baba Amritha and the Weeping Madonna of Rockingham oil. Both have been approved by Benjamin Creme, although the Tlacote remedy is the only one to be recommended by the Masters. See details on the last page.

South Australia

Public Lecture – 30 June, Adelaide, SA

There was an excellent response to Pasquo's public talk, with 57 people attending.

Open Day Transmission Meditation – 21 July, Berri, SA

I was very pleased with the turn-out – 12 people came. Most enjoyed the information, and the Transmission Meditation went well. I think for a rural area that's pretty good. I'm so very pleased that the TM approach is a good way of introducing the reality of the spiritual hierarchy, and in future that will be my approach – softly, softly. – Antonio

Victoria

In June we held our stall at the major 4 day MindBodySpirit festival in Melbourne. It went well, with a lot of people stopping next to the stand and reading the posters on the walls.

There were a lot of genuine queries, and David gave an interview to a radio station here in Melbourne. We had good group work, with different co-workers on the stand every day. All in all it was very good.

Melbourne MindBodySpirit Festival, June 2010

The next festival was a week after the MBS. David and I went to a 2 day festival in Bendigo for the first time. The first day we had some genuine queries about Maitreya and transmission meditation. The next day was quieter.

Brian and myself also attended a festival at Sunbury, an hour's drive out of Melbourne. It was the first time in Sunbury too and it was excellent. People stopped at the stall and read the posters. There were very genuine queries about Maitreya and the 'stars'. It went all day, so at the end of the day we were tired but happy. A lot of visitors took flyers away, including a yellow bumper sticker, which I made:

share = justice = peace
www.share-international.org

I was surprised and happy – it has not been like this before. The next festival is Sunday, 25 July. – Valter
